

CRS Service Incorporated is a manufacturer and distributor of hydraulic control replacement components. These general terms and conditions of sale apply to all components manufactured, products repaired and services provided by CRS Service Incorporated for sale and or distribution to its customers.

CRS extends warranties as provided by the original manufacturer of products provided for sale.

Products manufactured by CRS Service Incorporated are believed to meet and or exceed the design parameters of the original equipment manufacturers. All products manufactured or rebuilt by CRS Service Incorporated are warranted against defects in materials and workmanship for a period of 14 months after date of service or 24 months from date of shipment, whichever comes first.

Seller's sole obligation under its warranty shall be, at its option, to repair or replace any article or part thereof which is proven to be other than as warranted.

If an article is claimed to be defective in material or workmanship or not to conform to specifications, Seller, upon notice promptly given, will either examine the article at it's site, or issue shipping instructions for return to Seller. The warranties shall not extend to any articles or parts thereof which have been installed, used or serviced, otherwise than in conformity with Seller's applicable specification, manuals, bulletins or instructions, or, none, which shall have been subjected to improper installation, misuse or neglect.

Seller shall in no event be liable for special or consequential damages.

Buyer shall have the right to recover for 'incidental damages' as described in the Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-275 (1) or for labor charges, adjustments or repairs or any other work.

All warranties shall expire 14 months from the date the article is placed in service or 24 months from the date the article is delivered by the Seller, whichever period first expires; notice of claimed breach of warranty must be given within the applicable period.

This warranty is exclusive and in lieu of any other warranty, whether written, oral or implied.

CRS Service Incorporated assumes no responsibility for freight charges incurred to transport products claimed against the terms of this warranty. When authorized for return all shipments should be made with freight prepaid. No collect shipments will be accepted, they will be refused and returned to the sender at their expense. All shipments made to CRS Service Incorporated require prior authorization. Please mark all packing materials and cartons with return authorization numbers as provided by CRS Service Incorporated, sales department associates.
